Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits the respondent No.3 is constructing a building just in front of the property of the petitioner. The said construction is creating obstacle in the public road.

2) Be that as it may, it appears to be a dispute between two private parties which cannot be considered and adjudicated upon by this Court in its extra-ordinary writ jurisdiction. Thus, this petition is dismissed as not maintainable. However, the petitioner is at liberty to take recourse to other alternative forum that may be available to him in law.
